As we come

Preface

One score and three years ago our forefathers brought forth upon this campus a new high school conceived in ideals and dedicated to the proposition that all students are created equal.

Although those weren't the exact words of Lincoln the meaning to us, the students of Warren Central, is quite clear.

It is the purpose of this, your year book, to bring to you memories of the years gone by -- years that were spent in the class rooms of this -- your Alma Mater.

As you thumb through the pages remember when Effie Bottema and Margaret Reilly won all of those 4-H awards -- Anita Prange won the national D.A.R. contest and her trip to Washington -- Martin Williams was auditioned by Fabien Sevitsky -- and Betty Mowry won a W.C.T.U. award.

It is our hope that as you glance o'er the familiar faces of your friends perhaps ten or twenty years hence you will fully realize how truly trivial were your high school trials and tribulations in comparison with those you experience in later life.

Warren has watched many of the students, that pass through her portals for the last time as students, develop from flighty youngsters to mature men and women. Men and women ready to make their debut into the world -- ready to begin a whole new way of life. The future before them, the past behind; with many a sacred memory tucked away within the pages of this, the year book of '48.

These are the teachers of Warren....the men and women who have devoted their lives to the training of citizens for a safer world of tomorrow. Many times these people have gone far beyond the realm of their regular duties. Their object in teaching is not only to teach those things which come from the experiences of the past but to help place this information with each student so that he may see the things which appeal and are helpful to him and build from them his own individual personality.

The teaching staff of Warren is divided into a number of various departments. The English department is perhaps the largest in the school. Teachers serving under this head are: Mr. Harold Freeland, Mrs Lola Pence, Mr. Clyde Nice, Miss Cleo Kinnison, Miss Florence Caldwell, and Mrs. Bernice Smoker. Mr. Freeland is new at Warren this year. Those serving in the mathematics department are: Mr. Samuel Cooper, Mr. Walter Mowry, Mr. Irvin E. Dinn, and Mrs. Louise Riser.

Miss Kathleen Hergt, Mr. Paul Hamilton and Mr. Cecil Havens make up the staff of the music department. Mr. Havens is also a new teacher at Warren. Those in the field of science are: Mrs. Elizabeth Middleton, Mr. G.D. Keever, and Mr. Roland Sprunger. The foreign language department has for its teachers: Mr. C.E. Eash, principal of the school, Mrs. Myrtle Rodden, vice-principal and dean of girls, and Miss Cleo Kinnison who also teaches eighth grade English. Mrs. Margaret Irwin and Mr. Clyde Spears serve in the Art department of the school. Mrs. Irwin is another on the list of "newcomers" this year. The agriculture department, is headed by Mr. Walter Mowry, Miss Marjorie Forsyth, Mr. Wayne Murphy, Mr. Fred Pierpont, Mr. Russell Gladden and Mrs. Louise Riser serve in the history department. Another new teacher this year is Mr. Gladden, junior high instructor.

Those who teach athletics are Mr. Ralph Clevenger, basketball coach, Mr. Herman Nolte, reserve basketball coach, Mr. Vaughn Woods, football coach, Mr. Walter Mowry, track coach, and Miss LaVerne Ostermeyer, girls athletic director. Miss Ostermeyer comes to us from Butler University as another new teacher this year.

Miss Lokile Hicks, Mr. E.C. Baldwin, and Miss Kathleen Hergt make up the commerce department teaching staff. Miss Hicks comes to Warren as the new advanced shorthand and first and second year typing teacher. Those teaching in the home economics department are: Mrs. Wanda Beeson, Mrs. Geraldine Koch, and Mrs. Anna Stricker.

The only department which has one teacher as its soul faculty is the journalism department, Mr. Clyde Nice, also sophomore English teacher, is the sponsor. Mr. Nice is in charge of both the Wigwam and the Owl staffs of the school.

Lest We Forget

On January 15, 1925, students and teachers began flocking into a new building for Warren Township High School at the corner of East Tenth and the Post Road. The grounds and building for this new school covered nineteen acres. Mr. C. E. Eash, our present principal, took the position in 1925 and has held it ever since. Warren's first year saw an enrollment of 262, a teaching staff of 11, and a graduating class of 21.

Since that time Warren has risen to the highest standard obtainable by a school: a member of the North Central Association.

Let's look back over the years and see what has made Warren what it is today.

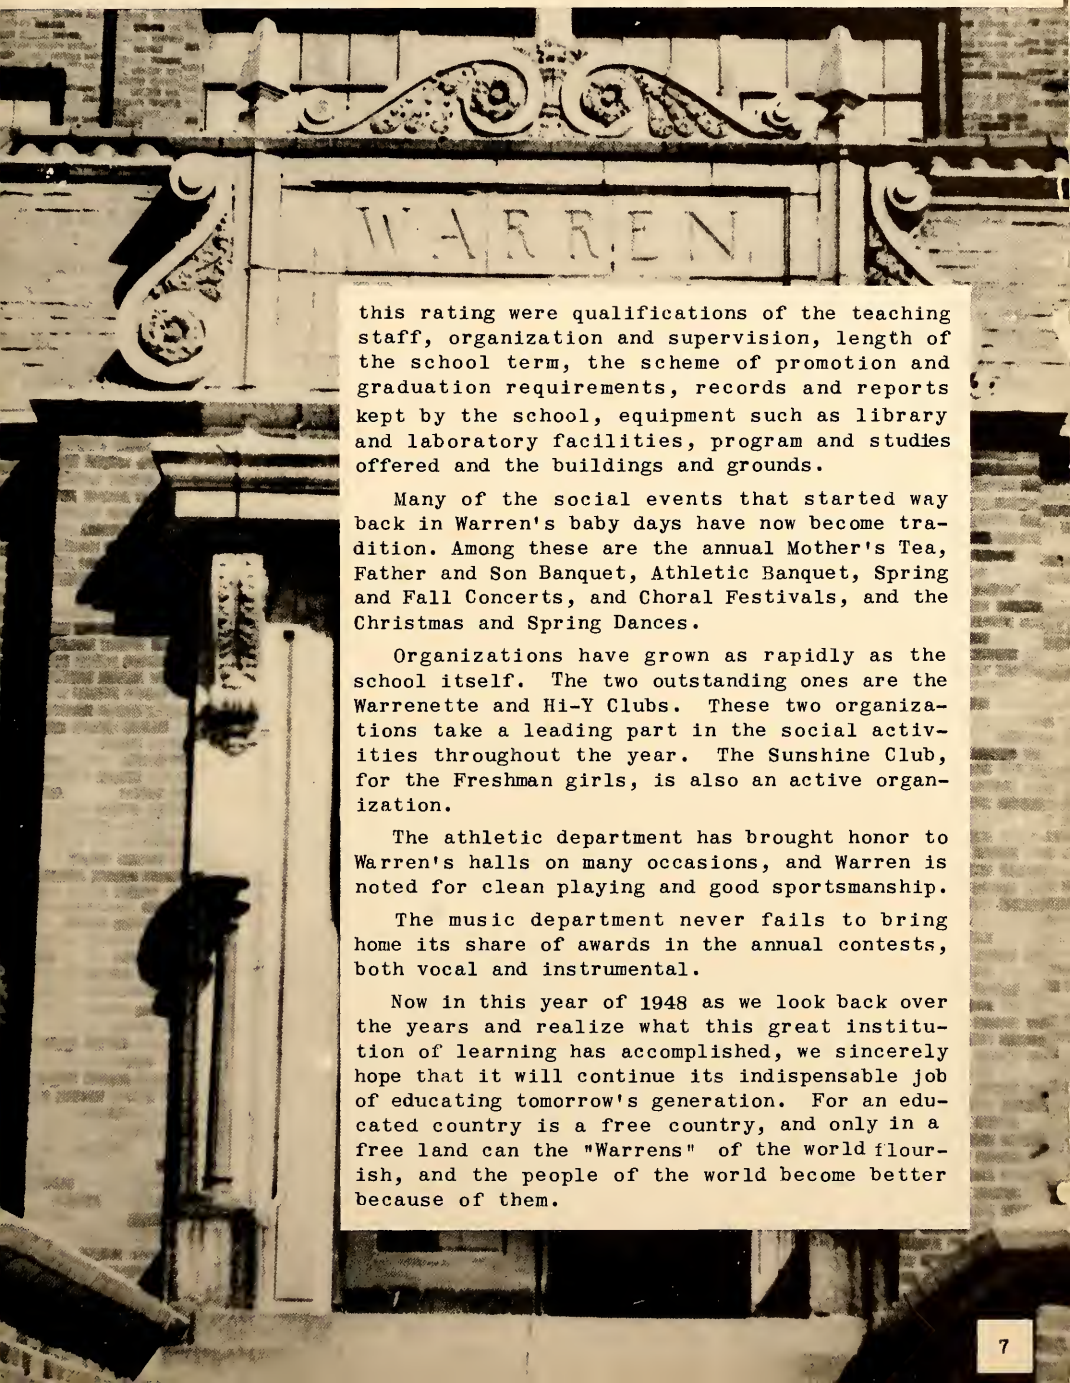
We still have three of those eleven teachers who started Warren on her upward trend. They are Mr. C.E. Eash, Mrs. Myrtle Rodden, and Mr. Walter Mowrey. They have contributed, and are still contributing, their services to the betterment of the school and community.

When the original building was erected it was thought adequate for the enrollment that was anticipated, and at that time it was. But in eleven short years the students outgrew the old building, and in 1936 a new building was erected at the rear of the original one. This new building cost approximately $210,000.00 and includes classrooms, shops, laboratories, and a large, modern gymnasium.

In 1931 Warren Central was rated as the only Marion County first-class commissioned high school, with the exception of the Indianapolis schools. Factors that helped Warren to obtain

That we may respect our past

As well as plan for the future.



this rating were qualifications of the teaching staff, organization and supervision, length of the school term, the scheme of promotion and graduation requirements, records and reports kept by the school, equipment such as library and laboratory facilities, program and studies offered and the buildings and grounds.

Many of the social events that started way back in Warren's baby days have now become tradition. Among these are the annual Mother's Tea, Father and Son Banquet, Athletic Banquet, Spring and Fall Concerts, and Choral Festivals, and the Christmas and Spring Dances.

Organizations have grown as rapidly as the school itself. The two outstanding ones are the Warrenette and Hi-Y Clubs. These two organizations take a leading part in the social activities throughout the year. The Sunshine Club, for the Freshman girls, is also an active organization.

The athletic department has brought honor to Warren's halls on many occasions, and Warren is noted for clean playing and good sportsmanship.

The music department never fails to bring home its share of awards in the annual contests, both vocal and instrumental.

Now in this year of 1948 as we look back over the years and realize what this great institution of learning has accomplished, we sincerely hope that it will continue its indispensable job of educating tomorrow's generation. For an educated country is a free country, and only in a free land can the "Warrens" of the world flourish, and the people of the world become better because of them.

At the beginning of the school year three seniors from each government class were elected to form the senior council. The council is composed of nine members. The purpose of this group was to take up and discuss some of the problems of the senior class.

The senior council sponsored a subscription campaign in order to publish the year book.

Don Brune was elected chairman of the group. Mr. Fred Pierpont is the teacher sponsor.

Plans for the "Pig-Skin Hop" are being made by Warrenette and Hi-Y Club Presidents, Virginia Sittles and Rodney Dunham. (top right) The dance was a "girl-ask-boy" affair and was a great success. Preparations are made for an issue of the Warren Owl by the first period staff. (top left). We turn now

Candid Catalogue

If each one of us had a fairy God mother no doubt one of our first wishes would be to be turned into a Gremlin, or some such character, and be able to glance into the private lives of our fellow "classies." Well, we don't have a fairy God mother,but by the power of the 'magic' box (in simplest terms "ze Camera!)we have a few 'snaps' that should prove interesting (at least we thought so!) If you wonder whence some of these poses came and who their photographers were just use your imagination, and remember kids this was leap year!....Get ready...here they come!

Picture (No. 1) shows Anita Prange and Barbara Reidy on a cold winter's day ....and all alone, too! "Ginny Sittle finds Bill Simpson a wonderful leaning post (2) especially when there are none around! The Windle girls, Joan and Barbara, were just as cute then (3) as they are now (4). Ione Roney was a good lookin' "babe"...hey Watson? (5) The bathing beauty in (6) is Jeanine Rairdon. Mac Keithly and Ivan Cordrey put one over on the Queen of Sheba. (She has nothing on you boys!) (7). Another water nymph.... it's Juanita Young (8). (9) is none other than our own dignified editor...Betty... "The Tongue"...McKenzie! "(No. 10) is proof," says Bobby Dollinger, "That I have taken a bath once in my life!" (So there!). What'cha doin' Elmer Wiese, Billie Alger, and Jack Phelps? (11). If you don't believe that a senior could ever be an angel take a look at (12). It's Howard Timmerman!). House, Frank (or is it Walt Frankhouse!). Betty Etychison and Don Brune are just taking in the scenes in (13). Miss Mac is you a' nic nacin' or is that the "New Look" you're giving 'Curt' Middleton in (14)? It's Bob (Dollinger, that is)again but Don Arthur takes up the other half of the pose! (15) Donna Barksdale ....alias the legs....occupies (16). 'Sammie Merrill and Diana Polk are the cuties in(18). Elmer and "Barb" Hoy are demonstrating the after effects of a picnic in (19). The 20th and 21st shots are of Patty and Donna Lingenfelter. Barbara Blowers is the little miss in (23). Tardy, "The Meek", Deer, "The Dewey", Wilson, "The Brain", "Osty" (The woman hater)....and president of the Bachelor Club,and Fowler, "The Mad Violinist" make up pose (24). "Go West Young Man Go West!" says Marge Davis to Mr. Rodebeck in (25). 'Bev'Stanton at the innocent age. (26) 'Sam', 'Archy', 'Ike', and 'Barky' in (28). "Pro" and "Joe", Bill Deer and John Wright.(30). 'Barb' Higginson reaching for the sky! (31). The question here is,"Is Bev Folkening getting the hot foot...or is it the hot seat?" (32). It's "Louie" Williams for (33). Let us in on the joke too will ya', Mr. Nice? (34) This one has been dubed? "Man power shortage!" (35) The gals are Gloria McGahan and Sylvia Merrill. The "Inseparable Foursome" for this shot? They are Bub "Jo", Guy, and "Barb" (36). The de Boots Club (37). Barb Christenbarry and Carol Caringer (38). George (the man, or is it mouse?) and Elsie (the cow) occupy (39). (You can take your pick as to which is which in this one!?) "The Old Look....remember? Margie Folkening is the unsuspecting character in this one. (40). Study hall sees Mark Gale, Delbert Overton and Elmer Wiese using some extra "atomic" brain power. (41). Joan Buckley and a 'pal' looking quite sharp in their younger years in (42). The rootin' tootin' cowboy in (43) is Joe Ballard. "Margie... I'm always dreaming of you Margie!....what was that, Johnny? (44). "The Three Little Sisters of Warren High -- Beverly, Fern and Miriam Dorrell. (44A). That's Carolyn Rodebeck and Bill O'Donoghue in (45). (Hmm!) Why so glum chum? Paul Campbell in (46). Margie was a glamour gal then too! (47) The "New Look" came out this year,The Gals?....Pat Parrish, Pat Lingenfelter, Ginny Sittle, Joan Baker, and Helen Glende. (48). The angelic face of "Barb" Boren peers at you from (49). These youngsters as you have guessed belong to the Sprunger family (50). Bill Deer had a hard day.... (51)."Long ago" it's Barbara Blowers (52). Ding, Ding, Ding, here comes my wagon!.... It's Lavell McCurdy (53). Whew....is that Lyn Dickerson (in case you wonder which is Lyn,she is on the right) and Lentz and her streamlined 'convert' in '36....(55).... and to end all our peeking here is Bill O'Donoghue, that Irishman himself, knock us in home! (56)

Class of '48

Well, here we are -- the seniors of 1948. Hasn't it been fun, kids? Six years of working and playing together within the walls of dear, old W.C.H.S. We've had our ups and downs, our good times and bad, our triumphs and defeats; but looking back on them, we know that they were the happiest years any group of high school students could ask for.

Will you ever forget the basketball games, the Hi-Y wiener roasts, those walks around study hall, and all those super dances. The social side of our lives at Warren has been full to the brim, and, oh! what fun. But these activities had a twofold purpose, for while they brought us good times, they also strengthened our characters and taught us how to get along with "the other fellow".

Our class has had a whole regiment of outstanding students and leaders. Some of them excelled scholastically, while others achieved a measure of fame in sports, dramatics, music or journalism. All of us, at times, have assumed the role of cooperative followers. Members of our class in the music department have appeared in two operettas and many contests; our athletes have successfully participated in all fields of sports;and all-around individual achievement has brought increased honor to the name of Warren Central throughout the city and state.

What of our work in the classroom? We have invested our time and energy in furthering our education. The dividends from our investment are an enlightened mind, a better ability to understand our fellow-men, and most important of all, an insatiable thirst for knowledge. Therein lies the key to our future success.

But we must reminisce only briefly. Our true interest lies in looking ahead, in planning and dreaming about our futures. In the years to come, we will find our classmates behind the executives' desks, administering to the sick, and rearing prospective students of Warren Central. Why, someone may even go so far as to invent the better mouse trap. Though we know, of course, that the extent of our success depends upon our own endeavor, we shall never cease to be grateful for the start we were given at Warren.

Ninth Graders Produce New 'David Copperfield'

In order to make the story of David Copperfield live, an amateur play was written and dramatized by Mrs. Bernice Smoker and her ninth grade English classes. It was presented March 17 for the ninth grade only by the following cast:

David Copperfield was played by Wilmer Neal; Mary Dammrich portrayed Mrs. Copperfield; Mr. Murdstone was portrayed by Charles Hoffman; Dr. Chillip by Dean Sparks; Lois Wilds was Miss Trotwood; Margaret Kirk was Miss Pegotty; Mr. Pegotty by Jerry Steffy; Mrs. Gummidge portrayed by Shirley Bohanna; Sally Farmer as Little Emily, and Walter Holzhausen was Ham.

There were four acts. The two scenes were David at home and David at Yarmouth.

Others taking part in the amateur hour were: Wilmer Neal reciting "Casey At the Bat," Mary Dammrich sang "One Kiss," Carol Atkinson played "Tico Tico," and Jo Ann Chapman played a Hawaiian guitar solo. Don Young was master of ceremonies.

In our CLASSROOMS we have learned much;

Now let's begin our stroll through the classrooms, In General Science we find Marilyn Day, Jack Hunter, Mary Lou Shaffer, Everett Cass, Mary Murr, and Dick Creasy.

In English, we find Eddie Utter and Robert Gordon learning how to express themselves in writing and orally.

Now being seen are Joan Wray, Barbara McIntosh, Lavell McCurdy, Pat Bernhart, Norma Bohannon, Evelyn Morris, and Marlene Phelps, who are learning the techniques of writing fast yet accurately in shorthand.

Here Wilma Graham, Barbara Windle, Beverly Folkening, George Bullock, and Jerry Steffey are learning zoology, botany, physiology, genetics, and embroyology, all in one class, biology.

This is Drafting, where concentration reigns, (Eh, Don?)

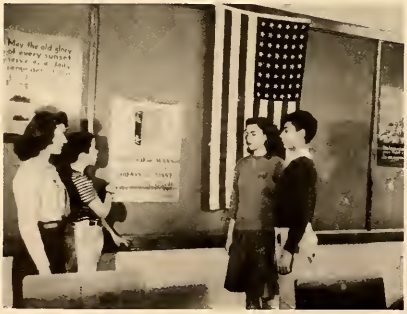
Also, like Ralph Wiese, Carley Gioe, Richard Simpson and Harry Prossor, many boys gain experience and skill in their short time spent here in Printing.

Learning the workings of oil painting, water colors, sketching, and posters are the goals of the Art class.

Again we find that room which is filled with innumerable treasures for the book-lovers of W.C.

Barbara Blowers, Don Jackson, Gerald Shoemaker, Marcy Moyer, Joan Buckley, Jean Ashley, Ruth Miller, and Helen Armstrong represent Beginning Journalism where, our future editors and reporters will arise.

Good 'ole Study Hall, where it seems quiet and calm. Or does it? These two seem very sceptical!



Susan Shaw, Don Haymaker, Margaret McMillan and Carl Johnson are learning how and what makes our U.S. "tick" in Mr. Wayne Murphy's eighth grade history course.

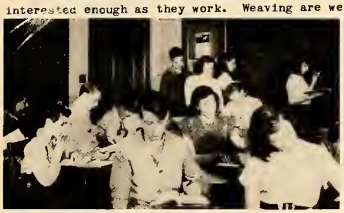
Our future homemakers studying housing look interested enough as they work. Weaving are we?

That book must be good judging from the look on a member of a seventh grade English class.

Alan Miedema is engrossed in some English work Mrs. Pence has assigned while the class looks on.



The math of Mrs. Riser's eighth grade pupils is serious or else intelligence is being posed.

P.T.A. members heard Mr. Murphy's panel of students discuss Russia at the March meeting at Warren.

Scissors, iron, and sewing machine create quite a clatter as the sewing classes go to work.

Don Morgan is concentrating on his drafting as is the entire class.

In bookkeeping, Barbara and Mary Thompson listen as Mr. Baldwin explains the day's assignment to Lois Sutphin.

These girls, also, are endeavoring to be perfect guided by Miss Lokile Hicks, instructor who oversees.

In Room 4 is pictured the very industrious seniors who, as always, are serious, industrious and hard working. (is this real or just a pose.) We wonder!!

Once again we see the library whose well trodden floors are so familiar.

The smiling group of Alpha Hi-Y officers above is Mark Gale, vice-pres.; Rodney Dunham, pres.; John Endicott, sec.; Walter Frankhouse, treas.; and sponsor, Mr. Ralph Clevenger.

"Clean scholarship, clean sports, and clean living" is the slogan of the organization.

The club sponsored convocations of a religous nature throughout the year and provided popcorn for the cheering fans at the basketball games.

The high light of the year was the Annual Father and Son Banquet held April 6 at Buckley's in Cumberland.

The boys in order to become members of tnis club must have sufficient teacher references and also write a hundred word essay on the Hi-Y.

The officers of the student representive body are Keith Bobenmoyer, sec.;Allen Meidema, vice-pres.; and Dot Shephard, pres.

It is the aim of this organization to study established policies of Warren and assist in interpreting them to the student body. The members are called on for suggestions to aid the administration and faculty in establishing policies for the good of the school.

The F.F.A., as most of us know, stands for the Future Farmers of America. This organization consists of boys interested in agricultural work, entering dairy, cattle, grain and crop contests and anything having to do with farming.

New members, who were initiated into the club, March 23, are Earl Reeves, James Williams, Bill Day, Bill Cowan, and John Shulz.

Mr. Walter Mowrey is the teacher sponsor of this group.

In our CLUBS and ORGANIZATIONS

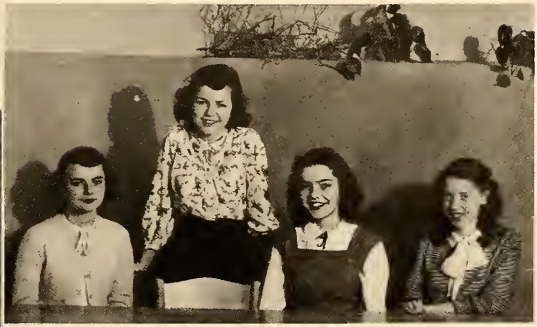
Character, Service, Scholastic Standard, Leadership, and Citizenship are the five standards upon which is based the selecting of members into the Junior Honor Society.

Officers of this organization are Bruce Fowler, president; Richard Deer, vice-president; Dave Osthiemer, secretary. Mr. S. Cooper is sponsor of this club.

Other members are Miriam Dorrell, James Wilson, Frank Tardy, Phyllis Rosell, Ruth Collins, Barbara Gale, Joan Tossell, Etta Steinkamp, Joan Buckley, Nancy Shockney.

The officers of the Senior Honor Society, sponsored by Mr. F.L. Pierpont, are president, Jesslyn Ball; vice-president, Virginia Rodebeck; secretary, Anita Prange; treasurer, Ted Fleetwood. Rodney Dunham, Betty Eytchison, Mary Hoffert, Barbara Hoy, Wilard McIntyre, and Lucille Williams are members.

The Warrenette officers and members, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Myrtle Rodden, really were busy this year planning and making the "Coke" Hours, Pig-Skin-Hop, Snow Flurry, Leap Year Frolic, and Spring Dance a success.



Sunshine officers are Jane Tossell, president; Margaret Kirk, vice president; Mary Rogers, recording secretary; Pat Huntsinger, corresponding secretary (not pictured); Nadine Price, treasurer.

The Warrenettes also held their annual Mother and Daughter Tea, February 21, in honor of their mothers.

Of this club, Ginny Sittle was president; Betty McKenzie, vice president; Anita Prange, Secretary; Beverly Dorrell, Treasurer; Evelyn Morris and Hazel Kleyn, Sergeant-at-arms; and Barbara Hoy, Chaplain.

Mrs. L. Hiser is sponsor of the new club, Y-eens.

The elected officers of this club are president, Shirley Schilling; vice-president, Catherine Sprunger; Treasurer, Mary Ann Maines; Secretary, Donna Fox; Program Chairman, Marvis Prince; and Council Representative, Mildred Kirk.

we have made lasting friendships

The 1947-48 Owl staff is composed of juniors and seniors who have had at least two semesters of journalism previous to their staff work. For 24 years the Warren Owl has appeared as a regular semi-monthly paper devoted to the interests of Warren Central High School and its associates.

The staff has had its trials and tribulations as anyone could see from a glimpse into the "Owl Roost" in Room 14. There, almost any time of day, the editors and reporters can be seen struggling through stacks of copy, rushing for last minute stories, or just staring at a blank page, wishing that there was something on it. It seems as though things always turn out all right, because the Owl has never missed a deadline (even if the second page was shaken up a bit!)

Quill and Scroll was organized in 1926 by a group of high school supervisors, and has grown until today it includes over 1800 chapters located in nearly every state in the Union, in England, Canada, British Hondures, Hawaii, Alaska, Phillippine Islands and Chile. Some of these young journalists may be headed toward a successful career in the field of journalism and others may even go farther to become great writers.

Our chapter included in its membership students who have excelled in the editorial, literary, business and art departments of our school paper. If the students stand scholastically in the upper third of their classes for the current year, their names and samples of their work are submitted to the national secretary-treasurer.

The Accuracy Club was just organized this year byMiss Lokile Hicks. This is an honorary typing club. Membership is obtained by typing for ten minutes without error, regardless of speed. The members pictured (right) are Sue Ann Blackwell, Judy Moyer, Donna Smith, Susie Faiss, Betty Brannon, Barbara Ping, Marcia Ann Gibson, Evelyn Morris, Arla Jo Stites, Betty Mowry, Barbara Rosell, Betty Eytchison, Carolyn Rodebeck, Betty Hendrickson, Betty McKenzie, Rosella Sachs, Carolyn Dickerson, (seated) Barbara Perkins, and Leona Perkinson. More recent members who are not pictured are Jesslyn Ball, Beverly Schoentrup, Rose Marie Burtt, Vera Littleton, Ray Bullock, and David Ingmire.

Gazing at this picture you undoubtedly recall the many achievements of this active organization, for now you are viewing the vocal section of the music department, the Warren Central senior choir. It has been a busy year, but the choir has shown through with outstanding results. One of the highlights of the year was the operetta, H.M.S. Pinafore given on March 12, 1948, under the direction of Miss Katheleen Hergt. Not a seat was empty during the evening performance and from the time the gym lights dimmed and the curtain parted until the close of the last act it caused favorable comment from all. Here also recognition should go to Betty Dammrich, choir accompanist,whose untiring efforts have helped Miss Hergt achieve these high honors in concerts, programs and contests.

We have planned and executed;

Presenting, in the "Hot Licks" department, the Swing Band!! Jean Steele, Joan Tossell, (vocalists) Roberta McConnell, (Piano) Larry Crosley, Charles Estridge, Pat Riggins, Wallace White, Jerry Steffey, Sam Rumford and Ray Laffin.

As you now look at the familiar faces of the band members you will quickly recall the many times that this organization provided wonderful entertainment for us. It made us "mighty" proud the days they displayed their marching ability at several of the football games and judging from the contest results, we all are "rubbing shoulders" every day with several prospective "pros". Much recognition for the band's high standing must go to Mr. Cecil Havens and Mr. Paul Hamilton, whose fine work has given remarkable results.

Through the talent and cooperation of the band, the memories of our basketball and football games have been made a little more vivid. It's annual concerts have also been well presented and have proven an enjoyment to the community. Visitors who have seen and studied our music department have been well impressed by the extent of the goals obtained and its marvelous supervision.

Here also we find the twirlers who can't be overlooked for their exceptional activity. Carolyn Dickerson,drum majorette should be congratulated for her splendid work in leading the band and her line of twirlers through difficult manuevers during marching demonstrations. She made them look like the "Tops" and we're proud of her, too! Carmelita Meyers was replaced by Joann Archer on the event of Carmelita's moving away from school.

we have learned to do by doing.

Next we see the orchestra and look at those new uniforms. (Very n-i-c-e!) This organization, too, has been a symbol of beauty and enjoyment. Here, also, we find many outstanding musicians whose blendings of tones has provided music for countless programs. In this section of the music department we find the string instruments. This addition to the brass, woodwind and percussion families renders a delicate tone to the bold and daring qualities of the others. When Mr. P. Hamilton and Mr. C. Havens put them all together they have a masterpiece of a music portrait, which once heard cannot be forgotten. The orchestra with thirty-five members is smaller than its sister organization, the band, which has fifty members, but it deserves an equal amount of credit. Its past school year history has kept its reputation like the previous years as being one of the best orchestras in the surrounding territory.

"We Shook the Family Tree", the play given by the senior class was a laugh success judging from the plot and response of those who attended. The play was originally written in book form by Hildegard Dolson and dramatized by Perry Clark. This, the first senior play at Warren since '45, was presented on the night of November 16 and a matinee was given for the pupils that afternoon. The cast included Jesslyn Ball, as Hildegard, a girl tired of being a wallflower, and Bob Dollinger as Freddie Shermer, who wears knickers. Rodney Dunham as Mr. Dolson, Hildegard's father; Hazel Kleyn as Mrs. Dolson, mother; Lucille Sprunger as Sally the younger sister; Mac Keithley as Bob the older brother Jo All Thomas as Ellie Mae, Bob's heart-throb, Betty Eytchison as Jill, the friend; Howard Timmerman as the younger brother; Rosemary Burtt as Paige, who likes to play postman; Willard McIntyre as Mr. S., Freddie's father, and Joy Abney as Mrs. Shermer. Mrs. L. Pence was Director.

"Spring Green" was presented by the juniors on February 15,16,17, and was directed and chosen by Mrs. Lola Pence.

The cast: Lila LaMere as Eula Hotchkiss, Bill O'Donoghue as Bing Hotchkiss, Pat Riggins as Dunk Doyle, Helen Glende as Pinky Ames, Nancy Lentz as Mrs. Rumble, Ray Laffin as Newton Todd, Bob Folkening as Officer Ryan, Teny Bader as Genevieve, John Wright as Micheal Todd, Wilmer Neal as Billy, Eunice Cochran as Nina Cassel, Delores Brown as Scooty, Malcolm Ebaugh as Grandpa, Gerry Shoemaker as Dr. Blodgett and Sylvia Merrill as Tony Cassel.

We have have had plays to amuse us,

The annual Public Relations Dinner and the Quill and Scroll induction were held jointly on March 19 at 6:30 P.M. in the school cafeteria. Dr. DeForest O'Dell, head of the journalism department at Butler University was the principal speaker. This dinner is given as a means of the school's expression of gratitude to those organizations that render service throughout the year. Mr. C.E. Eash, principal, introduced the special guests and the speaker. Mrs. Anna Stricker was in charge of the serving.

and a candle-light dinner as well.

Capacity Crowd Attends Operetta; Super Performance Pleases Audience

An audience of 1300 listened intently to Gilbert and Sullivan's H.M.S. Pinafore presented Friday night, March 12, by the Warren Central Choir in the school gym.

Aching backs and wet feet opened the show with the sailors doing their regular cleanup duties.

Ralph (Mark Gale), loving Josephine, the Captain's daughter (Jo Ann Thomas), tenderly resolves, after some taunts from Dick Dead Eye (Bob Dollinger) to speak to her at once about his feeling for her.

Sir Joseph Porter K. C. B. (Larry Crosley) pleads the cause of his rival most eloquently by assuring the sailors upon inspecting the ship that a common sailor is the bulwark of England's greatness and is equal to all men, excepting himself.

When told of his love for her, Josephine spurns him, and assures him that a village maiden would be more suitable for his affections.

Despairing at the refusal of his love, Ralph is in the motion of suicide, when Josephine comes forth to stop the tragedy by offering him her love, after she has decided that love levels all ranks.

Joyfully Josephine and Ralph, Cousin Hebe (Donna Kinzel), Boatswain (Don McClure), and Becket (George Groenert), plot to leave the ship and be married on shore that night. Dick Dead Eye hearing of the plot steals away to tell the Captain. Upon his return the crew and the ladies of Sir Joseph rebuke him while two husky sailors remove him hastily.

A lonely Captain (Robert McClure), whose world has fallen apart, at the beginning of the second act, sings to the pale moon of his plight. Little Buttercup (Hazel Kleyn), a bumboat woman, hearing and seeing the one she loves, tells him that in her mystic powers she sees a change is to come over him.

Wondering what new misery it could be, Dick Dead Eye appears to spoil the plan of Josephine and Ralph.

Creeping steadily along the ship ready to descend to the shore to attend the coming wedding is the crew and their ladies. Mysterious noises made by "a cat" kept interrupting the journey on board.

The Captain, dressed in black clothes, a whip in hand, startles the crowd as "the cat" was wise to their plans and was there to stop it.

When explanation was made, the Captain said "Damme"! The startled ladies were pleased to see the entrance of Sir Joseph, a mild sissified man who is against unnecessarily strong language. The Captain was sent to his cabin in disgrace. Sir Joseph, finding the reason of the forbidden word, orders Ralph to a dungeon cell.

Little Buttercup surprises and pleases the crew greatly as she tells of her younger days when at baby farming she mixed some babies up—one well bred and the other of low condition. Ralph was the well bred baby, and the Captain was the other.

Appearing before Sir Joseph, each dressed according to rank. Ralph is now Captain and the Captain a common sailor.

Each chose their mates with Sir Joseph forgetting his cousins, sisters and aunts, for Cousin Hebe. The Captain as a common sailor, promises ever to be untrue to Little Buttercup, and Ralph and Josephine are finally united forever.

We have had our moments

WARREN CENTRAL CHOIR PRESENT H. M. S. PINAFORE

The H.M.S. Pinafore, a highly colorful and entertaining two act operetta by Gilbert and Sullivan, will be presented by the Warren Choir tonight at 8:00. Miss Kathleen Hergt, choral instructor, will direct and Betty Dammrich is to be a piano accompanist. The orchestra also will participate.

The curtains will open upon the quarter deck of His Majesty's Ship, the Pinafore, and into the century when Lord Nelson's Fleet helped to reign over the high seas for Britain, then Queen of the waves.

Leads have been assigned to Larry Crosley, who will portray the Rt. Honorable Sir Porter, K. C. B., First Lord of the Admiralty; Robert McClure, Commander of the H. M. S. Pinafore; Mark Gale as Ralph Rachshaw, able seaman; Robert Dollinger, Dick Deadeye, able seaman; Don McClure, Billie Bobstay, Boatswain's mate; and George Groenert, Bob Becket, carpenter's mate. Josephine, the captain's daughter is to be acted by Jo Ann Thomas while cousin Hebe, Sir Joseph's first cousin will be played by Donna Kinzel. Mrs. Cripps, better known as little Buttercup, will be portrayed by Hazel Kleyn.

Those students named for committees were: Costumes, Barbara Hoy, Judith Moyer, Emerson Finch, and Jerry Underhill; electricians, Don Jackson, Rodney Dunham, and Jack Buckhorn; stage and scenery, Donna Kinzel, Donna Lingenfelter, Donna Barksdale, Barbara Litz, Leona Perkinson and Don Jackson; prompter, Sylvia Merrill; curtain, John Prange; make-up, Barbara Rossell and Barbara Litz; matinee ticket sales, Virginia Sittles, Sizie Faiss, Mark Gale, Robert McClure, George Gruenert, Larry Crosley, Marjorie Davis, and Delores Gunberts; ushers, Jane Humphrey, Mary Rodgers, Jane Tossell, Nadine Price, and Janice Case.

Mr. Paul Hamilton helped with the general supervision of the operetta while Cecil Havens directed the Senior Orchestra. Mr. G. D. Keever was in charge of the lighting, Mr. Clyde Spears, with the stage posters, and tickets and Mr. Fred Rodebeck and Mr. Roland Sprunger took care of the ticket sales. Mr. Wayne Murphy and Mr. Herman Nolte were the stage assistants. Miss Marjorie Forysth was in charge of make-up while Mrs. Margaret Irwin headed the art arrangements.

Eighty chorus voices will participate in this event and the orchestra members will include Bruce Fowler, Patricia Bernhardt, Lida Koehring, Margaret Reilly, Barbara Frakes, Lois Askren, Mary Sanders, Juanita Young, Nancy Lentz, Lucille Sprunger, Donna Barksdale, Yolanda Berry, Martin Williams, Marlene Aichorne, Harry Hoff, Howard Timmerman, Virginia Rodebeck, Wallace White, Claude Forth, Ray Laffin, Gloria McGahan, Sylvia Merrill and Carol Atkinson.

The Leap Year Frolic proved to be really a frolic! Gals invited the guys so every girl had her "dream date."The Warren Swing band under Mr. Cecil Havens' direction played. (Note their swell band-stand!)

The refreshment table was manned by the P.T.A. Chairmen and the members of the dance committees were: publicity-Betty McKenzie and Gloria McGahan, Sylvia Merrill, Helen Glende, Jackie Franklin; tickets - Beverly Dorrel and Bev. Stanton, Lila LaMere, Barb Campbell, Barb Gale, Helen Armstrong; decorations - Barbara Hoy and Leona Perkinson, Judy Moyer, Dalores McDuffey, Margaret Wininger, Doris Simpson; refreshments - Anita Prange and Barbara Reidy, Donna and Marilyn Smith, Donna Thompson, Carolyn Dickerson; program - Evelyn Morris, Hazel Kleyn and Jesslyn Ball, Betty Eytchison.

There have been lighter moments, too.

Every day of the week Mrs. Alma Taylor is at Warren Township schools.

On alternate Mondays she is at Lowell and Cumberland schools, Tuesday and Wednesday, at Warren Central, alternate Thursdays, at Shadeland and if needed she will go to Pleasant Run and Cumberland.

On alternate Fridays she is at Township House and pleasant Run.

In the grade schools, Mrs. Taylor checks eyes, teeth, and the throats of students, records vaccinations, and sends notices to parents. All first grade students are examined by Mrs. Taylor when they start to school in the fall and the third and fifth grade pupils are checked yearly. Others are examined if referred to her by teachers.

At Warren Central, Mrs. Taylor superintends hearing tests, dental examinations and nurses pupils who are ill. She also sends notices to homes calls at homes and tends to health problems discovered by the attendance department.

Mrs. Eash has the job of keeping us well supplied with pencils, tablets, notebooks, erasers, and whatever else we may need in the way of classroom equipment. She also has the task of balancing the books of the school cafeteria, and all clubs and organizations which have funds.

Our nurse's office and bookstore serve in many ways.

This season's Warrior Football squad completed a fair season, winning four, losing four, and tying one. Warren finished third in the county with a 3-1-1 record.

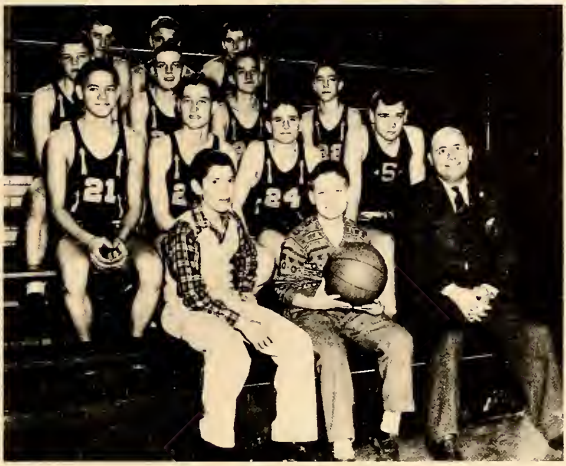
Next to the HARDWOOD

and the sharpshooting WARRIORS



Warren's Warriors did not enjoy a successful season as they won seven and lost fourteen. However, the outlook is bright for next year with nine members returning.

One of the highlights of the season was the four team tourney at Tech which the Warriors won. They easily triumphed over Decatur Central 40-28 and then outlasted Franklin Twp. to win 49-44.

In both the county and sectional the Warriors lost to the eventual champs. Speedway turned back Warren 33-28 in a county first rounder. Washington sidelined the Warriors 57-48 after Warren had upset Shortridge 49-44.

Elmer, Lida and Lila were veterans when it come to leading. They all led the Warriors last year and Elmer and Lida the year before that. Elmer leaves this year as he is a senior, but the girls remain.

George Groenert and Bruce are the two managers who have served the athletic department before Bullock, Don Borgman and Wilmer Neal being the new additions. None of these boys will leave as all are underclassmen.

Girls share the limelight in G.A.A.

Officers elected by the members of the G. A.A. have served their terms and new ones will be elected as a new term starts next year. No seniors participated in G.A.A. this year so the officers consisted of one junior and three sophs. Seated left to right are: Diana Polk, treasurer; Margaret Reilly, president; Thelma Amos, vice president and Donna Lingenfelter, secretary. Miss Ostermeir, sponsor, is standing. The president is pictured below.

List of activities enlarged

The girls of the athletic department have enlarged their list of activities on a large scale. Volleyball, softball, basketball, ping-pong, shuffleboard, and tumbling (pictured below) were included. Members were Thelma Amos, Billie Alger, Helen Armstrong, Effie Bottema, Barbara Blowers, Norma Bohannon, Barbara Frakes, Delores Gumberts, Lide Koehring, Janice Kohlmeyer, Lila LaMere, Rosie Lichtenberg, Donna Lingenfelter, Evelyn Morris, Phyllis Miller, Ruth Miller, Sylvia Merrill, Gloria McGahan, Mike Meyers, Margaret O'Dell, June Overton, Marlene Phelps, Diana Polk, Lois Paul, Margaret Reilly and Barbara Windle.

Our drum majorettes!

Those cute little gals strutting along with the band at football games were (left to right) Ruth Miller, Jane Humphrey and JoAnne Archer. Carolyn Dickerson and Mike Meyers moved so the group was reduced to three.

The scuffling of feet around the study hall will always remain as one of the fond memories of the senior class.

A driving course under the supervision of Mr. Herman Nolte was begun at Warren. The students were given eight weeks of instruction and a test booklet to complete. A state patrolman gave the final test for the student's operator's licenses.

Mr. Nolte and Gerald Shoemaker are shown below inspecting the dual-controlled Ford used in the course.

Senior Farewell

We, the members of the Senior Class
Of 1948
Wish to express our gratitude,
To the school we think is great.

We've had our laughs, we've had our sighs,
Those days are almost gone.
We made decisions we thought were wise,
And regretted them later on.

When we were Frosh, we proudly smiled,
And wore our kelly green,
And brighter, wiser Sophomores,
You've surely never seen.

Hard work, then the Junior year,
Our goal was in plain sight,
We wanted that diploma on graduation night.

Now that the night is almost here,
It's a little sad, you know,
We sort of wish we had another
Year or two to go.

But when we last pass through these portals,
As we realize now we must,
We leave you Freshies, Sophs, and Juniors,
An almost sacred trust.

Do all you can, the best you can,
Though your lessons make you sigh,
And you, too, will thank your teachers
Because they set the standards high.

And now as we stand ready to enter
A world of different hue
We're a little scared, but we'll not falter,
Warren, thanks to you.

You've given us the things we need,
And above all else we do,
We vow to make you proud of us,
As we say "Farewell" to you.
